

Names: _____ AND _____ Class: _____

November is Native American Heritage Month. Find information on this tribe: _____

BOOK

1. Go to the ONLINE CATALOG and type in the name of your tribe.

Click on the KEYWORD (or ENTER) button. How many books does the library have? _____

How many of these books are NOT about your tribe? _____ (most? a lot?)

Click on the SUBJECT button. How many books does the library have? _____

Are these books specifically about your tribe? _____

Choose one that you think would have the best information, and write down the CALL NUMBER _____

(2 parts)

AUTHOR _____ (LAST NAME first)

TITLE: _____

City : Publisher, Date. _____

ENCYCLOPEDIAS

2. Go to the GROLIER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA ONLINE – and type in the name of your tribe. Click on the article and Write down one interesting fact

3. Go to the book set of the WORLD BOOK ENCYCLOPEDIA and find your tribe.
Write down what part of the United States they live in now or lived in the past

Who is the AUTHOR of the article (look at the end of the article) _____

Write out a BIBLIOGRAPHY - following these examples – watch the punctuation!!

BOOK

Cutler, Barb. Seattle Native Americans. Seattle: Capitol Hill Press, 2004.

ENCYCLOPEDIA

Cutler, Barb. "Indians of North America." World Book Encyclopedia. 2002 ed.